PREFACE

The present bibliography contains nearly 500 references on the "Problems of Immigrant Women Past and Present" published during 1900-1979. The bibliography is by no means definitive, but the items in it represent many of the retrospective and current publications, which may be used as guides for further research. The listings are arranged by the author in alphabetical order and the bibliography itself is divided into four parts: Part One consists of monographs; Part Two is a listing of articles and periodicals; Part Three contains selected theses and Part Four is list of journals pertinent to the subject in question. Although Canadian materials are stressed when possible, coverage includes the United States, the U.K., Australia and a few European references. Division by subject area is avoided due to the high rate of overlap.
